Jul 15th, 2001
USA

Dear Friends,
Jai Bheem.

“Atta Deep Bhav!” is a new monthly news article starting from May 15th 2001 and will come to you every 15th day of the month. As the name means, “Be Thy Own Light!” this is the article for Indian Buddhist students who are willing to follow the path of “Atta Deep Bhav!” in life. We are pleased and honored to start this article for the following objectives.

Objectives:

To encourage as many Indian Buddhist students as possible, to get a good job in the United States of America and overseas.

To give them an overview of the trends around and the coming opportunities.

To achieve these objectives, we have an earnest and sincere desire to give correct, complete and very useful information about the current career trends in any field, mainly focussing on Computer and Information Technology.

First few Lines from our Desk...

To every single Buddhist student in India, we wish to convey through this article that though we work here, very far from India, we care for you all. We will do our best possible to provide you with good information. But one very important thing you all need to keep in mind: It is you who should take a deep and enthusiastic interest to make your own individual career dreams true. It is you who needs to strive hard to achieve success.

Finally, with the thought that the heart of every Buddhist student will beat in sympathy for every other Buddhist student and with the hope that you will share this information with as many Buddhist students as possible.

Depending upon the suggestions and response from the readers, we are wholeheartedly open for making changes but within the framework of making this article a powerful source of right career related information for Indian Buddhist students.

Long-term Opportunities for Indian Teachers in UK:

This news may be a good attractive start for many Indians who are in education field and still wanted to relocate abroad. In a bold new initiative to attract, recruit and keep teachers, London schools are to offer long-term contracts to thousands of Indians for the new September term. More than 200 London schools have asked recruitment agencies to search for teachers willing to undertake long-term work commitments. A British Asian Educationist believes that this might even work towards re-focusing India’s Gaze, away from IT and on to education.

In an attempt to end the culture of ad holism and provide stability for students, London schools wants to move away from the present short-termism. News that thousands of permanent jobs are up for grabs and available at once - to Indians who speak 'perfect' English, have basic teachers qualifications and no police record, comes even as British schools face an acute shortage of teachers, forcing some to change to the four-day week.

Potential Indian recruits can expect a warm official welcome, according to agencies. Indeed, under new regulations, visas and work permits for so-called shortage occupations now take days, not weeks. In recent months, Doctors, Nurses and IT workers have been added to the list of “most wanted”, alongside Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry teachers.

But Britain's Department of Education told The Times of India it did not "encourage (teacher recruitment from) developing nations where there is likely to be an adverse effect on the Economy". Analysts say the Government is keen to play down the negative publicity of repeatedly advertising Britain's skill shortage abroad, but as for IT industry, the Government is providing necessary support they may have to do the same for Education sector too. In Britain the Education Sector is a Private Sector. Important to note that UK is one of “hot places” for the IT workers in India after US.

Important Information:

1. <http://www.ajb.dni.us/>

This site is America’s Job Bank. It gives info about the new jobs available everyday and new Resumes put with them. Also gives info about total available jobs and total available Resumes. As on Jul 10th 2001 the information available on this site is:

|------------------------------|-----------|
| Number of New Jobs Today: | 15,908 |
| Number of New Resumes Today: | 1,827 |
| Total Jobs Available: | 1,648,178 |
| Total Available Resumes: | 423,459 |

The message in these figures is still clear, the job potential in US is still very high but one may be required to have more flexibility in his/her area of work and may require to shift from area of work to another as the situation and market demands. This is particularly important in the current slow-down of US Economy.

This site also provides facility to search the jobs available with the occupation you are interested in. This is great site for all job seekers in all different occupational areas.

2. <http://www.indiatimes.com/infotech/careers.html>

This is one of the best sites as far as information related to IT is concerned. Following list highlights the information available:

- Listing of US colleges offering IT courses
- Listing of Australian colleges offering IT courses
- List of colleges/ Universities in UK offering IT courses

It also includes useful information related to following careers:

- Preparing for MCA
- How to find a career in e-commerce
- Network Security Expert: Still hot
- IT workers still in great demand in the US
- Database Administrator
- Web Developer
- Graphics Animator
- Multimedia Developer

There is a lot more number of useful career related articles.
